WALDEN'S POND REVISITED

DEAR NEIGHBORS OF "WALDEN'S POND REVISITED",

Recently, my wife and I downsized to a house behind our oldest daughter and granddaughters, because we will both turn 83 by the end of this year. During our move, my wife ran across an item we made as an advertising item for selling the lots at "Walden's Pond Revisited."(see attached photo)The attached photo describes the primary desire for my development project:"WALDEN'S REVISITED: A PLACE TO IMMERSE YOURSELF IN NATURE & THE FRIENDSHIP OF NEIGHBORS"

I had read the book, Walden's Pond, by Henry David Thoreau. The book focused so much on the beauty and peacefulness of nature and good friends, that is why I created the phrase for advertising the sale of lots>>>"WALDEN'S REVISITED: A PLACE TO IMMERSE YOURSELF IN NATURE & THE FRIENDSHIP OF NEIGHBORS"

The attached photo of the pond I had put in and the pavilion I built with the help of my kids and some friends, was taken before the lots were put on the market for sale. I thought some of you might like the photo and would want to frame a copy for use in your home.
I put only 10 copies of this letter with an attached copy of the photo in some of your mail boxes. So be sure to share it with your neighbors so all of you can "Immerse yourself in nature and the friendship of neighbors."
I hope you are all enjoying your homes, the pond and pavilion and the trees of nature and your good friends and neighbors.

My warmest regards and wishes,

Jim Blumenstiel
